

Japan: 2024 Grantmaking Guidelines

Boeing's Focus in Japan

The Boeing Company opened its first office in Japan in 1953. Boeing partnerships in Japan have grown steadily, as has our engagement with communities around the country. Today, we focus on two of Boeing's community investment strategies to develop specific plans tailored to particular needs. The following guidelines help to determine our grant recipients.

Goal:

Create cradle-to-career pathways to strengthen and diversify the pipeline of skilled workers entering today's dynamic labor market. Advance 21st-century skills such as knowledge acquisition, creativity, innovation, critical thinking, problem solving, collaboration, media and technology literacy, self-direction and adaptability.

Concentration:

